Carol Asbury to Give Senior Speech Recital

On Friday, March 2, the life of Dr. Peter Marshall, widely-known clergyman of his day, and one-time Chaplain of the United States Senate, will be portrayed by Carol Anne Asbury in her senior speech recital.

Material for the recital is taken from Catherine Marshall's best seller, A Man Called Peter. This living testimony of a man of God is filled with pathos, humor, and translucent power of Christ.

The recital, sponsored by the Speech Department, will be held in the Fine Arts auditorium and special music will be given by Larry Finger and R. T. Kendall, accompanied by Mary Jo Bowling.

Ministerial Group Hears Sponsor at Luncheon

The Ministerial Association recently had a luncheon in the school cafeteria. Their speaker was their sponsor, Professor W. M. Greathouse, who used as text I Corinthians 9:24-27.

His subject was "Running a Spiritual Race." He said that we run a heavenly race in comparison with the Greek Olympics. There is no guarantee of a continued victory, unless we keep running. The sanctifying grace of God is the only thing that can keep us stable and determined in running this race.

He also said that we should settle things with God while we are young so we will be able to serve the Lord the largest part of our life.

In closing Professor Greathouse added, "The victory is not easily won; it takes constant consecration."

Mr. Tucker Speaks on "Highway Safety"

A Friday Night Program on Safety climaxed "Good Citizenship Week." Mr. Randy Tucker, a member of the Tennessee Council of Safety, was the guest speaker. The subject of his speech was "What Traffic Safety Is Costing You."

Darda Staff Visits President's Home

President and Mrs. Mackey recently entertained the members of the Darda staff with a buffet supper.

Professor and Mrs. K. W. Phillips, and Professor and Mrs. V. Neil Richardson, advisors, also attended.

partment, urged drivers not to forget the Golden Rule when they get into their cars. He said that motor vehicle accidents cost American people four billion dollars in 1955.

He also stated that 1000 people were killed in traffic accidents in Tennessee this past year. In his opinion, drunken drivers are potential murderers and should be dealt with accordingly.

Mr. Tucker closed by saying that the most important thing to remember when driving is "Do not follow that which is in front of you too closely."

The program was sponsored by the college senior class.

Dr. Church Scheduled For Benson Lectures

Dr. John R. Church, of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, is the scheduled speaker for our annual Benson Lectures, March 7 through 11. There will be morning services in the chapel at 11:00 a.m., and evening services at College Hill Church, at 7:30 p.m.

The Benson Lectures are given in memory of the late Mr. John T. Benson, Sr., long a supporter and benefactor of Trevecca College, by his son, John T. Benson, Jr., of Nashville.

Dr. Church, a Methodist, is well-known to the people of the Wesleyan persuasion. He is in constant demand in revivals and camp meetings. Dr. Church is the author of a number of books, including Why Do the Righteous Suffer?, Earthen Vessels, and Religion in the Home.

His messages are instructive and present a practical approach to a life of consecration.

Choir Sings at First Church; Dinner Set

The A Cappella Choir made an appearance at First Church, Sunday, February 26.

Among the selections they presented were special arrangements of "He Lives," "Sound the Battle Cry," "Hallelujah for the Cross," "Savior Divine," "So's I Can Write My Name," "Lost in the Night," "A Mighty Fortress," "The Lord's Prayer," "Built on a Rock," and "There's a City Called Heaven."

The choir will sing in chapel soon, and other engagements have been scheduled in district churches for some week ends in March and April, previous to the tour.

The choir dinner will be at Greer's at 5:30, Saturday evening, March 10. Choir members may pay their $1.30 to Carol Anne Asbury, Joyce Lewis, Larry Finger, or Wesley Eby.

Whenever anyone has offended me, I try to raise my soul so high that the offense cannot reach it.

Student Council Members Attend A.S.G. Conference

Members of the Student Council recently attended a Tennessee regional conference of Associated Student Governments.

The conference was held at Austin-Peay State College in Clarksville, Tennessee, where student leaders of various phases of school life met and discussed their own particular problems. Such discussions included: Student Publications, Student Government and Faculty Relations, Dormitory Restrictions, and Campus Social Life.

Students attending were E. C. Rose, Ruth Johnson, Norma Jean Peters, Lee Eby, Cary Neal Duckett, and Dr. Adams.

Students Give Recital

The Music Department presented students in recital Friday evening in the Fine Arts auditorium.

Soloists were: Ed Whittington, baritone; Nancy Thorpe, soprano; Edith Mingledorf, soprano, and Larry Finger, tenor.

Pianists were: Mary Beth Richardson, Ruth Ann Duke, James Ralph, George Houston, and Mary Jo Bowling and Emily Hamilton, duet.

Keep Standards High; Live by Convictions

Maintaining a genuine Christian experience of religion is a responsibility that would run perfectly parallel with even the most difficult job or duty. It should not be so hard; yet it is not always so consistently easy.

God does not require that we live in a constant spiritual realm. Moreover, it is not possible. It would not even be practical. But we can still live up to our standards that we determined upon while we were in the spiritual realm. Now when we speak of the spiritual realm we refer to the time we spend in prayer and communion and the times that our souls are filled with the "glory of God."

However, it is entirely necessary that we keep the presence of God. We cannot always live in that glorious spiritual realm, but we can keep the presence of the Savior. We can keep our standards high. We can live by our convictions. We can keep our religion!

The Bible says, "To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven... a time to laugh... a time to build up... a time to speak..." Our human nature would be vain if we did not have times of rejoicing. But even amidst these times we can keep our convictions if we want to.

Library Adds New Reference Materials

The library has recently added several new reference books of various kinds. Some of the most valuable are two new sets of encyclopedias—The Americana and Britannica. These two are 1956 editions and contain the most up-to-date information available. Also in the encyclopedia field are the new edition of the Lincoln Library of Essential Information, The Catholic Encyclopedia and Encyclopedia of Educational Research.

Other books of major interest to students include: The American Oxford Atlas, New Century Dictionary, Year Book of American Churches, Information Please Almanac, American Nicknames, Their origin and significance, and Dictionary of Phrase and Fable.

The library is for the benefit of everyone. Students should take full advantage of all the material available and use the library often.

Out in the Fields

By ELIZABETH BARRETT BROWNING

*The little cares that fretted me,
I lost them yesterday*

*Among the fields above the sea,
Among the winds at play,*

*Among the lowing of the herds,
The rustling of the trees,*

*Among the singing of the birds,
The humming of the bees.*

*The foolish fears of what might happen
I cast them all away*

*Among the clover-scented grass,
Among the new-mown hay,*

*Among the husking of the corn
Where drowsy poppies nod,*

*Where ill thoughts die and good are born—
Out in the fields of God.*

It Is Not Easy . . .

To apologize,
To begin over,
To be unselfish,
To take advice,
To admit error,
To face a sneer,
To be charitable,
To keep on trying,
To be considerate,
To avoid mistakes,
To endure success,
To profit by mistakes,
To forgive and forget,
To think and then act,
To keep out of the rut,
To make the best of little
To subdue an unruly temper,
To maintain a high standard,
To shoulder a deserved blame,
To recognize the silver lining—
But it always pays.

Student Council Sponsors "Good Citizenship" Week

A week of "Good Citizenship" has been brought our way by the Student Council.

Monday morning the week was started by a panel discussion in chapel. The panel was made up of three seniors: Carol Asbury, E. C. Rose, and Wendell Williams; and two faculty members: Dr. Adams and Mrs. Mackey. Student questions that they discussed were about such things as reverence in chapel, and light cuts in the dormitories.

Tuesday—a skit was given by Elaine Huff and Jan Penix on the correct way to answer the dorm telephone. Lucille Smith was the narrator of this skit.

Wednesday—another skit was presented by Carol Asbury and Charles Cork checking the students about spending too much time in the "T" room.

Thursday—Miriam Rowland made an announcement about using good citizenship when we rush to our mailboxes after chapel.

Friday—students filled out a Student Council Poll concerning national news to determine students' knowledge of current events.

"Good citizenship" week should not end after this week but continue throughout the school year. Good citizenship should be a part of our everyday Christian living.

A good thing to remember, and a better thing to do, is to work with the construction gang and not with the wrecking crew.

Thursday, February 2

Rev. Fred Thomas said "The rise and fall of any church begins in the educational institutions." There is no fear of what our church will be tomorrow if we keep Spirit-filled today. Christ made an investment and we must make an investment of our lives. Our investment is summed up in one word—"Evangelism."

Friday, 3

Rev. Paul Martin took as his subject "The Foot of the Cross." We can measure our lives by the yardstick of the cross. The best work we do for Christ is that work we do willingly and unnoticed to others.

Monday, 6

Rev. William Taylor spoke from Job 38:1-3 and Isaiah 6:1 and 8. The world is changed when we come to know God. The essence of devotion is the utter dependence upon God. Knowledge of God comes by personal faith in Him.

Tuesday, 7

"As a layman, our task is just as important as that of a preacher or a missionary," advised Dr. Mackey. All of us have the opportunity to visit the sick, speak to a soul, sacrifice of our means to evangelize the world.

Wednesday, 8

Fire Inspector Slonecker gave information on fire regulations. Nashville ranked third in the 4,000 cities participating in Fire Prevention Week. He gave us several good points to keep in mind to prevent fires in our own school. In closing, he presented a badge to Dr. Mackey authorizing him to be on the look-out at all times for fires on Trevecca campus.

Thursday, 9

Richard Gunn spoke on the subject, "Our Consolation in Christ," using as his text St. John 14:1-3. "Let not your heart be troubled." Three truths he emphasized in this Scripture. (1) His preparation, (2) the place (3) the promise.

Friday, 10

Mr. Al Vertrese spoke from Acts 16. He told how the Lord had used him in Europe to start a Youth for Christ and a Gospel Team. He feels the Lord has a special work for him in the Air Forces and he is making a career of it.

Social Ledger Leaves

"Star Light, star bright
First star I see tonight
I wish I may, I wish I might . . ."

This was the little rhyme I said to myself as I walked into the banquet room to T. N. C.'s annual Valentine Banquet. The "Stairway to the Stars"; bright colored dresses; and gorgeous array of flowers lent enchantment and romance to the evening. Several visitors were on the campus for the occasion. Miss Della Anthony, from Olivet Nazarene College, was escorted by R. T. Kendall; Miss Barbara Kimball was the visitor of Paul Hall, and with her was Miss Ann Luten, fiancée of Bruce Kelly. From Alabama came Virgil Tittle, friend of Sammie Bell and from Florida came Phillip Arthur to be with Roberta King. Herman Kendall was down from Lexington to escort Miss Mable Cooner and Miss Barbara Barnett, of Memphis, was escorted by Bill Galloway. Bob Elgin, of Detroit, came to be with Jan Penix, and Elaine Huff's date, Ronnie Wilson, of Chattanooga, came with Gene Jeffery, who dated Joan Barry.

The Banquet proved to be a great success according to remarks received from Anna Stucki and Wendell Williams, Mary Jo Bowling and Larry Finger.

The afternoon of the banquet saw great activity all over campus. Charles Cork was seen going through very strange actions chasing a florist truck while he was clad in bedroom slippers, an overcoat, with a tooth brush dangling from the side of his mouth! Excitement really must have engulfed him.

I've heard the Sophomore Class is going to have a quilting party to use their excess cotton. You've heard of cotton candy; well if you want to make "cotton clouds" contact Lee Eby for the most successful method.

Beautiful Dreamer

Have you heard beautiful music coming from the lobby of the Recreation Center on Sunday afternoons? Here's an explanation—one dozen of Trevecca's music-loving students are getting together on Sunday afternoons to listen to recorded inspiration.

Among their collection of sacred, classical, and semi-classical recordings are: "The Lord's Prayer," and "Holy, Holy, Holy" by the Robert Shaw Corale; "He" by Al Hibler; "Rhapsody in Blue," and "Piano Preludes" by George Gershwin; "Music for Memories", orchestral arrangement; and "Melody of Love."

Anyone who loves good music is invited to join the "listening party" from 2:00 'til 4:00 p.m.

"Charter members" are: Jan Penix, Don Pyles, Thelma Preston, Chuck Aylor, Asa Sparks, Nancy Thorpe, Faye Ingram, Kathy Eannottie, Harry Hemmerly, Bill Ring, Jeannette Griffin, and Paul Dell.

They are the "Society of Music Critics and Appreciators."

Informal Saturday evening gatherings are on the tentative schedule of other plans.

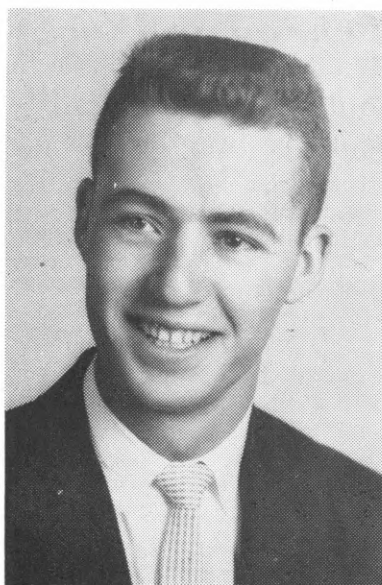

These students believe that good music and Christian fellowship make a desirable combination.

We are but little candles in a windblown flame, against a bitter night; O, God of light and hope and love, help us to keep alight.

away with her literature class, tried to leave "footsteps in the sands of time," but only managed to make size "7" prints in the fresh cement in front of McKay Hall. It was a mistake and she finally covered them up with a trowel and the aid of E. C. Rose and Cary Neal Duckett.

Harold Hughes Is Active President of M.A.A.

Bang! A "46" Dodge is left quivering as a tall (6'3", to be exact) young man jumps out of his jalopy to begin another busy day. This "college joe" with the big brown eyes and friendly grin is Harold Dean Hughes.

Harold Dean had his beginning here in Tennessee in the city of Clarksville on June 21, 1935. However, he's migrated far from Tennessee to the land of mountains and site of Pike's Peak—Colorado. He now lives in Colorado Springs, and this is where he attended high school. Besides study, his main interest in high school was the band, in which he played the trombone.

Harold came to Trevecca in the fall of 1953. A member of the junior class, he is also President of the Men's Athletic Association.

He's also busy with the college publications, acting as assistant promotion manager of the Darda, and assists in the sports writing on the TREV-ECHOES staff.

He's gained quite a reputation scholastically in the field of math; socially among Trevecca coeds; and is generally known as one who's a friend to all.

New Look for Old Places

The Boarding Department is endeavoring to bring to the students of T.N.C. good, wholesome food at the lowest possible cost. With this motive in mind, some of the prices have been reduced, and some servings have been increased where justified. It has been, and still is easier to get a well balanced meal in the cafeteria, and the prices are lower.

With the addition of the new grill and hot serving table in the T-Room some improvement may be in store. However, due to the type of service in the T-Room, the food will still be a little higher than in the cafeteria.

For those who are on a diet, or wish to watch their waistline, there will be suggested items for them. A special T-Room menu will be featured each evening from 4:30 to 5:30, except Sunday. Your suggestions will be greatly appreciated and given consideration. The student submitting the most practical and usable menu each week will receive a free meal when that menu is served.

All suggestions must be written and signed, and dropped in the suggestion box in the T-Room.

Watch for advertisement in next issue of TREV-ECHOES.

Having been poor is no shame, but being ashamed of it is.

—Benjamin Franklin

Harold is faithful to the church, and has chosen First Church for his home church while in Nashville.

A personal item about our M. A. A. president: His favorite color probably is "Brown"—shade of "Debby!"

UPC Beats Sophs; Takes Top Place

After going down in defeat 47-32 in a previous game, the Upperclassmen bounced back to a victorious win of 51-27 over the Sophomores.

The UPC's now have first place in the standings.

Leading the scoring for the Upperclassmen was Gene Shelton with 17 points. Shelton, playing his second game for the Upperclassmen, could prove to be the connecting link on the squad for the trophy fight.

Wayne Murphy led the scoring for the Sophomores with 11 points. Whittington was next with 9. Moody Gunter was absent from the sophomore lineup because of illness.

Evans Leads UPC Win Freshmen Lose, 68-41

Harry Evans piloted his Upperclassmen club to a 68 to 41 victory over an improved Freshmen team, by bucketing 10 field goals and 2 free throws for 22 points. Godby and Shelton followed in the scoring for the Upperclassmen with 18 and 10, respectively.

The big gun for the Freshmen was Roy Crum, and following him was their captain, Tom Hardaway with 10.

Gene Shelton and Tom Cox showed good potential in their first game as they led in two departments; Shelton led in rebounds with 11 and Cox in shooting percentage with 75%.

UPC Swamps Frosh, 50-21

Evans and Finger set the pace for the Upperclassmen in their 50 to 21 victory over the Freshmen with 21 and 15 points, respectively.

Don Browning hit 3 of 10 to register 6 points to be high point man for the Freshmen.

Sophs Triumph Again Beat Freshmen, 47-24

The Sophs, now first place occupants, deflated the ego of the Freshmen squad with an impenetrable defense to hold the Freshmen to 24 points while scoring 47 for themselves.

Eddie Whittington, hitting 35% of his shots, led the Sophs in scoring with 19 points. Usually clam and shy, Tom Hardaway fought his way free under the basket from Brown, Pyles, and Whittington to lead his Freshmen teammates with 8 points.

The Freshmen will be trying to learn by their mistakes when they meet their on-coming foes. Those fellows could surprise us!

"Bible Consecration" was the subject of Rev. Don Scarlett's message. He took for his text Romans 12:12. Consecration is the best way for us to express our love to Christ.

Tuesday, 14

Rev. Patitee, missionary to the Philippine Islands, and also in China for nine years, told us about his work there.

Wednesday, 15

Mrs. Mackey gave some excellent pointers on being good citizens and workers for the Lord.

Thursday, 16

Mrs. Phillips asked the question, "Your talents, are they developing or deteriorating?" She emphasized recognition development, and consecration of talents.

Sophs Victorious; H. S. Falls, 54-23

The Sophomores routed the High School 54 to 23 to remain in undisputed first place.

Whittington was in the background in scoring for the first time this season as Brown and Pyles, scored 17 and 13, respectively, and Gunter followed a close third with 12 points.

Jim Hampton was the only one to find the hoop for the High School, scoring 12 with 3 field goals and 6 foul shots.

The highlight of the game was that Robert Hedgepath hit one for one from the floor for a shooting percentage of 100%!

Rev. Fred Thomas showed how we could know we have been sanctified and have the Holy Spirit abiding in our heart. He has known this experience since the age of three. At the close of the message many students found definite help at the altar.

Sophs Rout H.S., 64-23

The High School was handed its seventh straight defeat by the Sophomores, 64 to 23.

The game found Gunter single-handedly out-scoring the entire High School team 26 to 23, and Whittington running a close second with 22.

The High School scoring was led by F. Spruill with 5 field goals for 10 points.

UPC Defeated by Sophs

The Upperclassmen bowed to a strong Sophomore defense 32 to 27. This assures the Sophomores of at least a tie with the Upperclassmen, who are fighting to stay in the race.

Strickland and Whittington led the parade in scoring with 19 and 17 points, respectively.

These two teams are top contenders for the championship this year.
